

GRAHAM H. RYAN is a litigation partner at Jones Walker LLP, where he concentrates on commercial civil litigation in federal and state courts, and has extensive experience in Louisiana substantive and procedural law and appeals. He has cross-industry litigation experience in the areas of business disputes, breach of contract, torts, real estate and construction, banking and financial services litigation, and other areas of complex commercial litigation. Graham represents a cross-industry national client base that spans banking, healthcare, construction, and energy.

Graham is an active member of the legal profession and the community at the local, statewide, and national level, currently serving on the LSBA Board of Governors and the Louisiana Law Institute, among many others. He graduated summa cum laude in finance from Louisiana State University, received his law degree from LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center (Louisiana Law Review), and is an alumnus of the Harvard Negotiation Institute dispute resolution program. Graham was named to the 2020 “Leadership in Law” class by New Orleans CityBusiness and was the first Louisiana lawyer to be honored as a “Top 40 Young Lawyer” nationally by the American Bar Association.
