

Kurt A. Offner began his career as a prosecutor for the New Orleans District Attorney's Office. Subsequently, he was a trial attorney for a local insurance defense firm and a national insurance company representing insurance companies and trucking companies. Then, in 2011 Kurt started his own plaintiff's personal injury firm and represented personal injury clients and injured workers. In late 2015, Kurt joined Alvendia, Kelly, and Demarest, LLC and continues to focus on cases involving injuries sustained in 18-wheeler accidents, auto accidents, work injuries, along with first party insurance claims and mass torts.

Kurt is a New Orleans native and graduate of Jesuit High School. Mr. Offner obtained his undergraduate degree from Louisiana State University and his law degree from LSU.
