

Roland L. Belsome

JUDICIAL SERVICE

1997-2004 – Judge, Orleans Parish Civil District Court, New Orleans, Louisiana. Presided over all aspects of civil litigation. Elected without opposition in July, 1996, and re-elected without opposition in 2002.

2004-Present – Judge, Louisiana Fourth Circuit Court of Appeal, New Orleans, Louisiana. Re-elected without opposition in 2010 and 2020.

EDUCATION

- Marion Abramson Senior High 1976
- University of New Orleans 1980
 - o Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, December 1980.
- Tulane University School of Law 1984
 - o Juris Doctor, May, 1984.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Wiedemann & Fransen, Professional Law Corporation, New Orleans, Louisiana, Attorney. Extensive practice in all areas of litigation. 1985 to 1988. Roland L. Belsome, Attorney at Law, New Orleans, Louisiana, Sole Practitioner, Litigation Practice. Multifaceted legal practice that included, but was not limited to, class actions, premise liability, medical malpractice, maritime litigation, criminal litigation and administrative hearings in both state and federal court. 1988 to 1996.